“No motorized vehicles will be permitted on courses EXCEPT official emergency response vehicles or those authorized by the Idaho Brittany Club to transport animals and handlers or provide logistics support for the event. Any person who attempts to drive any motorized vehicle on course will be cited for misconduct under AKC regulations.”

Due to Extremely High Fire Danger “Absolutely No Smoking will be allowed on Courses”

BLM requires Certified Hay, Hay Cubes or Hay Pellets, and you must be prepared to prove certification.

BLM requires that “left over” hay be picked up and horse manure be scattered prior to leaving.

BLM has tightened restrictions on sage grouse. You CANNOT train on the grounds before or after the trial in spring. If you violate these rules you are risking our continued access to these grounds, so please COMPLY!

If you are in need of Certified Hay please contact Larry Sandusky at (208) 861-3952
