CH World Tops Brutus V Opdyke WPX was from a nice litter of seven born on Thanksgiving Day 1983. His birth litter produced two other champion show dogs and another which won a five-point major her first time in a show ring. In his first World Championship Dog Weight Pull, Brutus lost to a very large half-sister, but did not lose another harness event after that day. He won the Anchorage Fur Rendezvous world title five years in succession. He didn't just earn "legs" towards a title, but won each contest and dominated during those five years.

We have included a photo of Brutus from 1988 on the day he won the Willow Winter Carnival Pull. He is being admired by 1987's Mr. Fur Face. In 1987, many witnessed Brutus pull a winning sled load of 3,800 pounds and then immediately after the contest pulled three automobiles that were hooked together for a demonstration.
