Enjoy the Archives where we keep memories and history alive, all stored for our future, dating back to 1879! For fun, go to the YEARS page and click on your birth year to see what was happening when you entered this world! If you were born prior to 1879 there was NOTHING going on, believe me, I checked it out at the AKC Library!

This link below will give you an idea of some of what I track in the Archives for Saint Bernards just pertaining to titles only. No wonder it takes me so long each month!

The August AKC Titles are in, and there is a large variety of titles for our very versatile breed. PLUS, several Breed Firsts on three titles:

- 3 Champions (CH)
- 5 Grand Champions (GCH)
- 1 Grand Champion Bronze (GCHB)
- 1 Grand Champion Silver (GCHS)
- 1 Rally Master (Breed First) (RM)
- 2 Scent Work Exterior Novice (Breed Firsts) (SEN)
- 1 Scent Work Novice (Breed First) (SWN)
- 3 Canine Good Citizens (CGC)
- 1 Advanced Canine Good Citizen (CGCA)
- 4 Trick Dogs (TKN)

IF YOUR DOG is one of the Breed Firsts above (Rally & Scent Work) I need a photo and article from you for the Archive's FIRST page. Check the page to see how it is done. The article does not need to be long and can be sent in an email and I will do all the formatting.

Purpose of the Saint Bernard National Archives.

To record & remember our breed's accomplishments from the past to the present; therefore, setting new goals & new accomplishments for the generations of the future.

Update-

I have opened a new criteria for the Reserve Best In Show (RBIS) wins now that I know it can be accomplished. 5 RBIS wins is good for a Hall of Fame Induction.

The BIS is still at 3 and now the RBIS (a tad easier) is set at 5. The Reserve Best In Show goes back to 2012.

The Archives have been updated to reflect the change.

CONGRATULATIONS and may there be more in our future!

Enjoy your visit(s) to the Saint Bernard National Archives.

Something to consider when naming your puppy and registering that name with the AKC:

When naming your new puppy and registering that name with the AKC, you might want to consider not making the name too long. A long name (including spaces between many words) tends to get cut off in the database fields. As a result, your puppy will not receive the recognition it deserves when it starts to earn titles as its name will appear "chopped off." We surely don't want that to happen! ☹️ A point to ponder!
