

The Saint Bernard National Archives' News & Updates For November 2017

The 2017 September Shows, Trials, Tests are now posted in the Saint Bernard National Archive's databases. ***

*Please keep in mind the "current" information published from the AKC Reports are a little over one month behind an actual show or title date. The Reports arrive in Shoreline, Washington, USA near the middle/end of the month and the new information is updated to the Archives shortly after.

ARCHIVE NOTES of INTEREST FOR...

Log on to: <http://clubs.akc.org/saints/Archives/Welcome.htm>

Enjoy the Archives where we keep memories and history alive, all stored for our future, dating back to 1879! For fun, go to the YEARS page and click on your birth year to see what was happening when you entered this world! If you were born prior to 1879 there was NOTHING going on, believe me, I checked it out at the AKC Library!

Purpose of the Saint Bernard National Archives.

To record & remember our breed's accomplishments from the past to the present; therefore, setting new goals & new accomplishments for the generations of the future.

Enjoy your visit(s) to the Saint Bernard National Archives.

Something to consider when naming your puppy and registering that name with the AKC:

When naming your new puppy and registering that name with the AKC, you might want to consider not making the name too long. A long name (including spaces between many words) tends to get cut off in the database fields. As a result, your puppy will not receive the recognition it deserves when it starts to earn titles as its name will appear “chopped off.” We surely don’t want that to happen! ☹️ A point to ponder!
generations of the future.
