

*Famous Folks &
Their Saint Bernards
Through the Ages*

Schottzie

Scottzie was bred by Marcia & Don Carter of MarDon kennels and was purchased by Marge in the 1970s. She was a great pet to her, very great temperament for everyone. She was quite an entertainer. The Greater Cincinnati Saint Bernard Club always marches with their Saints in the opening day parade held around the first week in April. Marge always loved that.

Marcia Carter