Dear STCA Member:

Plans are now well underway for our annual STCA National Specialty Show to be held on Sunday, October 5, 2008 at the Montgomery County Kennel Club show. I hope that you will be able to join us.

Enclosed is a general schedule of weekend events and the reservation forms that you will need to complete and return with payment to attend the Thursday evening auction and dinner and the Friday evening Annual STCA Awards Dinner. Also enclosed is the Montgomery County Kennel Club catalog advertising information and form that you will need to complete to place an advertisement in the catalog. When you arrive at the host hotel, there will be maps and driving directions to the locations of the various shows being held in the area during the weekend. Additionally, there will be information about an AKC Canine Good Citizen test that will be held on Thursday afternoon before the dinner and auction. We have also made arrangements to have box lunches available for purchase for Sunday afternoon.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING KEY DEADLINES

- Catalog advertising deadline: August 15, 2008
- Room reservation deadline: September 1, 2008
- Entries for shows close : September 17, 2008
- Thursday dinner reservations due: September 22, 2008

- Friday dinner reservations due: September 22, 2008
- Catalog and Box Lunch Reservations September 26, 2008

We are looking forward to a great weekend, full of Skyes and fun. I hope that many of you will be able to join us this weekend as we celebrate our exceptional breed. If you have any questions about the planned activities or require additional information, please contact me by telephone or e-mail.

Sincerely,
